

Special Notice

The Education Bureau has announced that school will be suspended with effect from 8th February (Thursday) until after the Chinese New Year holiday.

The IBL Project presentation will be postponed. Parents will be informed about the arrangement at a later date.

Lunch will be served at school as usual, and students will take the school bus home as scheduled.

In addition, all ECAs for today will be on as usual, and the students can take the school bus home at 4:30pm.

Boarders will be released after lunch or they can remain at school until picked by parents.

*Parents will be notified about the arrangement for all the sports and music teams practice individually via email in due course.
